

New Exhibit—Old Red Through the Eyes of the Community Opens at Old Red on Friday, June 4

For Immediate Release: June 2, 2010
Contact: Jessica Jernigan, 214-757-1926

(Dallas, Texas)—Beginning June 4, 2010, the Old Red Museum of Dallas County History & Culture will present “Old Red: Through the Eyes of the Community,” an exclusive exhibition of art and artifacts tracing the 118-year-old history of the former “Old Red” Dallas County Courthouse.

Local artists have contributed works to illustrate Old Red as they see the historic landmark in their daily lives: at work, at play, and as a symbol of the strong leaders of Dallas and Dallas County. Old Red invites visitors to contribute to this exhibit by adding their own snapshots of Old Red to our “Community Bulletin Board,” located inside the exhibit. Also on view are architectural artifacts and the story of the magnificent Victorian structure.

The exhibition will be available to the public from June 4 – November 1. For more information about viewing hours or to arrange group visits, contact Old Red’s Group Sales department at (214) 757-1949.

The Old Red Museum of Dallas County History & Culture is located in the West End of downtown Dallas at 100 South Houston Street in the beautifully restored Old Red Courthouse built in 1892. Dedicated to inspire and educate visitors about the rich and varied cultural, economic, political and social history of the Dallas County area, the 2nd floor of Old Red is filled with interactive exhibits, an educational learning center, and four mini theaters. The special exhibit gallery is located on the first floor. Admission to Old Red: Through the Eyes of the Community is included in general admission. General admission is $8 for adults, $6 for seniors, and $5 for children ages three to sixteen. Admission to Old

Red: Through the Eyes of the Community without general admission is $3 for adults and $1 for children. Admission is free for Museum members.
